

DINOSAURS

Created by Omaha Children's Museum

Dive into the prehistoric world of dinosaurs as you become a paleontologist! Come face to face with dinosaurs such as a Triceratops and Stegosaurus. Investigate the T. Rex skeleton. Hands-on opportunities in the fossil dig pit allow for exciting new discoveries.

AUDIENCE

Children up to 8 years old and their families

SIZE

1,500-2,000 square feet

LENGTH OF RENTAL

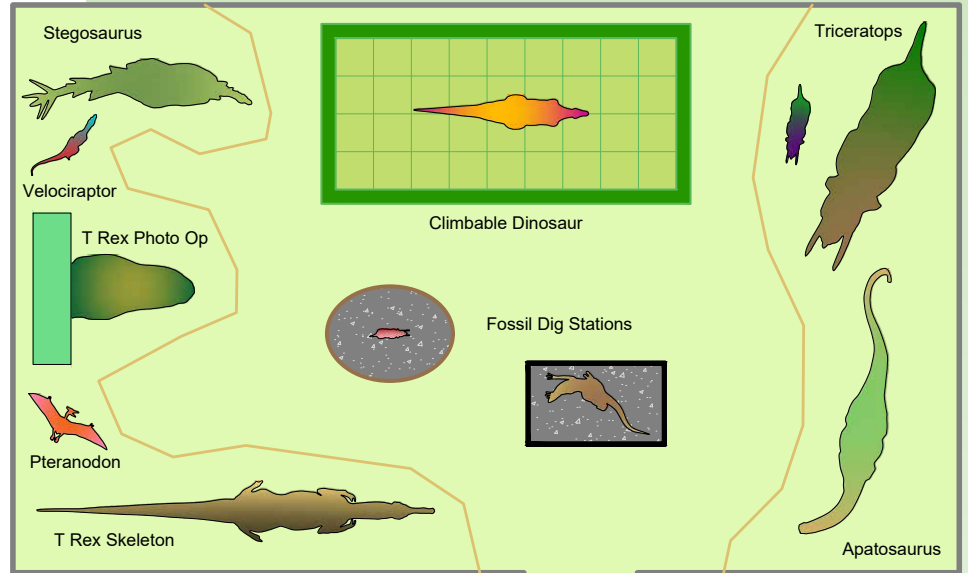

3 months

PRICE

$35,000

DESIGN INTENTION

Provide an interactive environment to assist in the development of the 7 Executive Brain Functions: Taking on Challenges, Perspective Taking, Self-Control, Self-Directed Engaged Learning, Communicating, Making Connections, and Critical Thinking.

DEVELOPED FOR:

Children up to 8 years old and their families

OMAHA CHILDREN'S MUSEUM PROVIDES:

Installation guidance; ongoing site support; print-ready photos and logo

HOST INSTITUTION PROVIDES:

Inbound shipping; insurance; staff to assist with installation and tear down

For more information or to rent the exhibit, email Brittney at bbuder@ocm.org or call 402-930-8036.

ocm.org

500 S. 20th Street
402-342-6164

OMAHA children's MUSEUM

Exhibit Includes

T-Rex Skeleton

T-Rex Photo Op

Pteranodon

Stegosaurus

Velociraptor

Climbable Parasaurolophus

Fossil Dig Stations

Triceratops

Apatosaurus

Also Includes

- Palm trees
- Tall and short shrubs
- Burlap ground cover
- Rope stanchions
- Dinosaur identification graphics

Educational Outcomes

Complete immersion into an interactive and imaginative world of dinosaurs as it looked during the Cretaceous and Jurassic periods.

Exploration of the role of Paleontology and the development of fine motor skills through the dig pit.

Develop gross motor skills while climbing through interactive environment.

Develop child social competency skills and creative role playing by taking on roles of paleontologists, dinosaurs, and more.